

Rob Burke – Nov. 13, 2016

Heart for people, not projects

Soul - Pray for people by name

Mind - Make a plan

Strength - Use your resources to love

My Action Plan

One who has been touched by grace will no longer look on those who stray as “those evil people” or “those poor people who need our help.” Nor must we search for signs of “loveworthiness.” Grace teaches us that God loves because of who God is, not because of who we are. - Phillip Yancey

Loving others using your wonderful mind:

- Who can I love? Who do I already connect with? Who can I go out of my way to love?) People... Not Projects

-
-
-

Opportunities that God has been putting on your heart.

- Would you pray for our North Campus? A great opportunity to show people God's love in a key area of Downtown.

-
-

Pray for the people above. Pray: “Father, open my eyes to see the opportunities all around me. Give me the strength and passion to share your love.”

Life Group Discussion Questions

Sunday, November 13th, 2016

Opening Question: Share about a time when someone went out of their way to help you.

Digging Deeper:

1. Read Mark 12:28-31 and I John 4:19- Share any new insights from these verses.
2. What happens if you obey the greatest commandment—love God with all your heart, soul, and mind—without obeying the second greatest commandment—love your neighbor as yourself?
3. Talk about what it looks like to love others with your: Heart? Soul? Mind? Strength?
4. Phillip Yancy said, “One who has been touched by grace will no longer look on those who stray as “those evil people” or “those poor people who need our help.” Nor must we search for signs of “loveworthiness.” Grace teaches us that God loves because of who God is, not because of who we are.” What are your thoughts on this quote? How have you seen God’s grace in your life? How can we help others to experience God’s grace?
5. What does it look like for us to both show God’s love and tell others about God’s love? How do we have a balance of both?
6. When do you find it most difficult to love others, and why?
7. Spend time going over “My Action Plan” (see notes or below)

Loving others using your wonderful mind:

. Who can I love? Who do I already connect with? Who can I go out of my way to love?)

People... Not Projects

-
-
-

Opportunities that God has been putting on your heart.

- Would you pray for our North Campus? A great opportunity to show people God’s love in a key area of Downtown.

-
-

Soul - Pray for the people above. Pray: “Father, open my eyes to see the opportunities all around me. Give me the strength and passion to share your love.”